When it comes to kids' minibikes, Yamaha is the clear leader.

With the PW50's rider friendly design, it's easy to see why this 50cc 2-stroke is a firm favourite with kids and parents. Safety features include an adjustable throttle which allows parents to limit top speed to suit the rider's skill level - and the enclosed shaft drive reduces maintenance chores. And there's no gear shifting to worry about, its zippy 50cc 2-stroke engine drives through a fully automatic gearbox for simple 'twist-and-go' performance.

At just 39kg, this lightweight and compact mini-bike is the ideal way for your child to have hours of fun while developing their riding skills.
